THOMAS WOLFE CONFERENCE

SAVANNAH, GEORGIA

MAY 20-21, 2011

Please join us for the 33rd Annual Meeting of the Thomas Wolfe Society to be held next May at the Hilton DeSoto in the historic district of Savannah, Georgia. The theme for the conference is "Wolfe and the Arts." Proposals for scholarly papers on any aspect of Wolfe's life or works are welcome, but submissions highlighting Wolfe's connection to the arts, including music, art, dance, theatre, and the domestic and practical arts, such as cooking, carpentry, and architecture, are particularly encouraged.

Please send 250-word paper proposals by January 31, 2011 to:
